

Prestwick Unit #3

Abstain – Tenacious

HIB/HAB “To have, hold” (Latin)

FUS/FOUND “To pour out” (Latin)

TEN/TAIN/TIN “to hold” (Latin)

PLE “to fill” (Latin)

HIB/HAB

“To have, hold”
Latin

PROHIBIT

(to hold in front of you but out of reach)

INHIBIT

(to hold in and not let out)

PROHIBIT

Verb

If the room they prohibit,
then you are “no in it.”

To stop someone from doing something; to prevent (“hold out of reach”)

INHIBIT

Verb

Can't rid her for one minute? Her love is so vivid that she has not hid it, giving you digits with messages explicit and unwanted kisses and scary night visits that give you the feeling you're trapped in a prison? Exhibit her business and solicit the court to inhibit her visits.

To get in the way of; hinder

(“hold in”)

FUS/FOUND

“To pour out”
Latin

SUFFUSE

(to pour out from beneath)

CONFOUND

(to pour drinks together, mixing them up)

INFUSE

(to pour into)

SUFFUSE

Verb

When Janay gets excited, her face is so suffused with joy and beauty that I fall in love all over again. I can't resist her inner glow. What's the use when I'm so amused with how she's suffused with beauty let loose?

To fill up from within;
to spread throughout
("to pour out from beneath")

CONFOUND

Verb

DFdksfds aalskdfi asdfk las dfa asdlfsdkaf jaskflj iwveri aosdfasldf iwoe owoaf j
confound asdfksjalkfjasdf asdfaskdf lasdlf akdsf kasdlf.

To confuse and frustrate

(“to pour drinks together, mixing them up”)

INFUSE

Verb

After many date rejections, this man decided to have “inflate injections” and infuse his body with way, way, way too much testosterone.

BEFORE

AFTER

To inject; to fill something or someone with
 (“to pour into”)

TEN/TAIN/TIN

“to hold”

Latin

SUSTAIN

(to hold up from beneath)

ABSTAIN

(to willingly hold something away from you)

TENACIOUS

(holding on fast and stubbornly)

RETINUE

(people who are held back around you)

SUSTAIN

Verb

Rather than make it rain, pouring money nightly down the drain, spending in vain on mix tapes from Lil' Wayne and late night chow mein, causing current pleasure but long time pain, Devonte decided to sustain his bank account to save it from strain and maintain long term gain.

To support for an extended period of time

(“to hold up from beneath”)

ABSTAIN

Verb

When I abstained from watching television, I found I had much more free time.

KEEP CALM AND WAIT TILL MARRIAGE

To not do something; refrain
("to willingly hold something away from you")

TENACIOUS

Adjective

Ten angry girls were following us home, ready to jump us because they had stubbornly held onto a grudge. It turns out that the tenacious ten hate us.

Stubbornly persistent; determined

(“holding on fast and stubbornly”)

RETINUE

Noun

Queen Elizabeth I always has a large retinue of ladies-in-waiting around her, King Richard II always had a large retinue of knights around him, and modern pop stars today have their “people” helping them plan their day.

A group that attends an important person

(“people who are held back around you”)

PLE

“to fill”

Latin

REPLETE
(filled up)

IMPLEMENT
(to fill to its potential)

DEPLETE
(to go down from filled)

REPLETE

Adjective

Even though working the night shift as a waiter at a 24-hour restaurant might sound like a tough job, when I came home at 8am, my wallet was replete with tips from all the late night owls.

Filled up with (“filled up”)

IMPLEMENT

Verb

It took the company several days to implement the new plans because the workers were afraid of giant puzzle pieces, but eventually, they met lack-of-face to lack-of-face and conquered their fears.

To put into action; execute

(“to fill to its potential”)

DEplete

Verb

The flash on my cell phone depleted the battery, so I yelled, “OMG, LIFE IS OVER!!!!!!!!!!!!”

To use up; waste
 (“to go down from filled”)